

Elma Chamber of Commerce
2019 Citizen Recognition Awards Banquet
Elma Eagles Hall – Friday May 3rd

The Elma Chamber of Commerce is accepting nominations for its Citizen and Business Recognition awards. Awards will be presented to extraordinary individuals for the outstanding work they have done in the Elma community. Citizen of the Year awards recognize outstanding, service-minded individuals that have exceptionally impacted the Elma community.

The individual should demonstrate definable, exceptional deeds that showcase a dedication to making Elma a better place to live, work and play. The individual may have a history of impacting the community, in addition to notable impact throughout the course of this year. The individual should be, or have been, extremely active and hands-on in the community and should be easily considered a role model.

The selection for Citizen of the Year recipients is not limited to a member of a specific organization such as the Elma Chamber of Commerce or an Elma business or civic association.

Individuals Eligible for Nomination Criteria:

- An area resident who has demonstrated excellence in Elma's community service and who has substantially enhanced the well-being of its citizens.
- The services listed have not been performed as part of the normal course of professional or business duties but, the contribution has been given freely without thought of receiving any personal or financial gain.
- The achievement may include community service, business and industry, labor, sports, arts and culture, education, heritage conservation, environment, etc.
- Elected federal, provincial or municipal representatives are not eligible for nomination while holding office.
